INSUFFICIENT MILK

Differential diagnosis after ruling out perceived insufficiency

SECONDARY PROBLEMS
Full ability to produce milk, but external interference with establishment

DELAYED
Full ability to produce milk, but process of Lact II temporarily impaired

PRIMARY PROBLEMS
One or more chronic, extrinsic or intrinsic factors causing lowered ability to produce milk

SECONDARY PROBLEMS

Infant suck
Maternal

Management
Accidental inhibitors
Nutrient deficiencies?

Physiologic:
Hormone and receptor problems

Physical:
Surgeries, trauma, anatomical defects

Milk Ejection Reflex Problems

Environmental Disruptors?

Insufficient Glandular Tissue